Responsible Pet Ownership:

All dogs within the Village limits are required to be licensed. Even those dogs you feel will never get out or run outside. We are aware that not everyone is able to get into the Village office during our office hours, the Village office accepts e-transfers and on-line payments for the cost of your dog license and we will mail you your dog tag.

Dog License Fees:

-$35 for a new dog licence. (Any dog older than 4 months old)

-$35 for renewal Jan 1 - Feb 28. After Feb 28 renewal fee is $40.00.

Dog Bylaw #02/2016 can be found on the Village website under "Governance."

Development/Building Permits:

Does your next construction project require a permit?

Many common improvements to your property may require a permit:

- New builds (Fence, shed, garage or dwelling)

-Demolitions, repairs or alterations to an existing structure

-Moving structures on or off your property

All applicable permits are to be in place before any work has been started.

For more information on permits and fees contact the Village Office.

Property Tax & Water Bill

Payment Options:

The Village offers multiple payment options to assist residents in paying their tax and water bills in a timely manner.

Payment Options include:

-In Office cash, cheque or debit

-Synergy Credit Union online banking

-E-transfer to paradisehill@sasktel.net

-Annual or monthly automatic debit from any bank or credit union. (Authorization forms are available at the Village Office)
